ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion to continue by defendant Taylor Sporven (Sporven) (Filing No. 21). Sporven seeks a continuance of the trial of this matter scheduled for September 19, 2016. Sporven has filed an affidavit whereby Sporven consents to the motion and acknowledges she understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act (Filing No. 22). Sporven's counsel represents that government's counsel has no objection to the motion. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Sporven's motion to continue trial (Filing No. 21) is granted.
2. Trial of this matter is re-scheduled for November 14, 2016, before Senior Judge Joseph F. Bataillon and a jury. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between September 1, 2016, and November 14, 2016, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason that defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 1st day of September, 2016.

s/ Thomas D. Thalken
United States Magistrate Judge
